Industrial Palace Na Výstavišti

The dominant feature of the exhibition grounds dates back to 1891, the year when the grounds opened for the Jubilee National Exhibition.

The building has been under reconstruction since February 2022. The aim is to preserve the unique original appearance of the palace from the nineteenth century, whilst equipping it with modern technologies for the twenty-first century.

Prague map

The map illustrates the layout of Prague with the Vltava River flowing through it. Key locations marked include the Airport, Prague Castle, and Old Town Square. Three proposed tram lines are shown: Line A (green), Line B (yellow), and Line C (red). A legend at the bottom right explains the symbols: a green line for Line A (35 minutes), a yellow line for Line B (35 minutes), a red line for Line C (45 minutes), a dashed circle for the Inner City, and an airplane icon for the Airport.
